

Changing lives one key at a time

Attention SHA Resident:

Do you have a child who loves to draw or paint? Maybe he or she would be interested in Housing America's "What Home Means to Me" Poster Contest. The Grand Prize cover winner will receive an iPad, and a framed copy of their original artwork.

"What Home Means to Me" Poster Contest

As part of NAHRO's Housing America campaign, a poster contest is held each year for children residing in affordable housing and community developments owned or administered by NAHRO member agencies. Posters reflect the national theme of "What Home Means to Me." The contest is a collaborative effort of NAHRO's chapter/state, regional, and national organizations. National honorees are selected from chapter/state-level winning entries.

NAHRO will not accept submissions from individual housing authorities. Any submissions sent directly to NAHRO will be disqualified.

Contact Allison Smith if you have a child who is interested and for further information at 217-753-5757 x259.

Art supplies will be provided by the Springfield Housing Authority.
