THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Don't risk your chances for federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application and recertification forms.

Purpose: This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.

PENALTIES FOR COMMITTING FRAUD

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house;
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received;
- Fined up to $10,000;
- Imprisoned for up to 5 years; and/or
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.

Your state and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.

ASKING QUESTIONS

When you sit down with the person who fills out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something – SAY SO!!! That person can answer your questions or find out what the answer is.

COMPLETING THE APPLICATION

When you give your answer(s) to application questions, you must include the following information:

FAMILY HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS:

- The names of all of the people (adults and children) who will reside with you, whether or not they are related to you.

SIGNING THE APPLICATION

- Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it and everything is complete and accurate.
- When you sign application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- Information you give on your application will be verified by your housing agency. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State or a private agency to verify that it is correct.

RECERTIFICATION

You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family/household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must re-certify. You must report on recertification forms:

TO: Purchasers and Tenants of Housing Constructed Before 1978

If this building was constructed before 1978 there is a possibility that it may contain lead-based paint!

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CONCERNING LEAD-BASED PAINT POISONING!

The interior of older homes and apartments often have layers of lead-based paint on the walls, ceilings, window sills and door frames. Lead-based paint and primers may have also been used on outside porches, railings, garages, fire escapes and lamp posts. When the paint chips, flakes or peels off, there may be a real danger for babies and young children.

Children may eat chips or chew on painted railings, window sills or other items when parents are not around. Children may also ingest lead even if they do not specifically eat paint chips. For example, when children play in an area where there is loose paint or dust particles containing lead, they may get these particles on their hands, put them in their mouths, and ingest a dangerous amount of lead.

Has your child been especially cranky or irritable? Is he or she eating normally? Does your child have stomach aches and vomiting? Does he or she complain about headaches? Is your child unwilling to play? These may be signs of lead poisoning, although many times there are no symptoms at all. Lead poisoning can eventually cause mental retardation, blindness, and even death.

If you suspect that your child has eaten chips of paint or someone told you this, you should take your child to the doctor or clinic for testing. If the test shows that your child has an elevated blood lead level, treatment is available. Contact your doctor or local health department for help or more information. Lead screening and treatment are available through the Medicaid Program for those who are eligible.

Inform other family members and babysitters of the dangers of lead poisoning. You can safeguard your child from lead poisoning by preventing him or her from eating paint that contains lead.

Look at your walls, ceilings, door frames, and windowsills. Are there places where the paint is peeling, flaking, or chipping? If so, there are some things you can do immediately to protect your child:

1. Cover all furniture and appliances.
2. Get a broom or stiff brush and remove all loose pieces of paint from walls, woodwork, and ceilings.
3. Sweep up all pieces of paint and plaster and put them in a paper bag or wrap them in newspapers. Put those packages in the trash can. DO NOT BURN THEM.
4. Do not leave paint chips on the floor. Damp mop the floors in and around the work area to remove all dust and paint particles. Keeping the floor clean of paint chips, dust and dirt is easy and very important.
5. Do not allow loose paint to remain within your children's reach since children may pick loose paint off the lower part of the walls.

As a renter, you should notify the management office immediately if the unit in which you live has flaking, chipping, or peeling paint, water leaks from faulty plumbing, or defective roofs. You should cooperate with the management office's efforts to repair any deficiencies and keep your unit in good shape. When lead-based paint is removed by scraping or sanding, a hazardous dust is created which can enter the body either by breathing or swallowing the dust. The use of heat or paint removers could create a vapor or fume which may cause poisoning if inhaled over a long period of time. Whenever possible, the removal of lead-based paint should take place when there are no children or pregnant women on the premise.

Remember that you as a parent play an important role in the prevention of lead poisoning. Your actions and awareness about the lead problem can make a big difference!

I have read and understand the above regarding Lead-Based Paint Poisoning.

RENTING FROM A RELATIVE

Please be advised of the following HUD guideline regarding renting from a relative as stated on the HUD Form 52646 ref Handbook 7420.8

The family (including each household member) must not:

- Receive housing choice voucher program housing assistance while residing in a unit owned by a parent, child, grandparent, sister or brother of any member of the family, unless the PHA has determined (and has notified the owner and the family of such determination) that approving rental of the unit, notwithstanding such relationship, would provide reasonable accommodation for a family member who is a person with disabilities.

24 CFT 945.105 defines a disabled family as "Disabled family means a family whose head, spouse, or co-head is a person with disabilities. The term 'disabled family' may include two or more persons with disabilities living with one or more persons who are determined to be essential to the care or well being of the person or persons with disabilities. A disabled family may include person with disabilities who are elderly."

Non-Elderly disabled family means a person with a disability who is less than 62 years of age. A person with disabilities means a person who:

- Has a disability as defined in Section 223 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 423), or
- Is determined to have a physical, mental, or emotional impairment that
  - Is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration;
  - Substantially impedes his/her ability to live independently, and
  - Is of such a nature that such ability could be improved by more suitable housing conditions; or
- Has a developmental disability as defined in Section 102 of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act (42 U.S.C. 6001(5)).

The term "persons with disabilities" does not exclude persons who have the disease of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome or any conditions arising from the etiologic agent for acquired immunodeficiency syndrome.

Non-disabled voucher holders are NOT ELIGIBLE to rent property from a family member.

I have read and understand the above statement regarding the Relative Rule.

- Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher, including the Disaster Housing Assistance Program (24 CFR 982)
- Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation (24 CFR 882)
- Project-Based Voucher (24 CFR 983)

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development maintains a national repository of debts owed to Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) or Section 8 landlords and adverse information of former participants who have voluntarily or involuntarily terminated participation in one of the above-listed HUD rental assistance programs. This information is maintained within HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, which is used by Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) and their management agents to verify employment and income information of program participants, as well as, to reduce administrative and rental assistance payment errors. The EIV system is designed to assist PHAs and HUD in ensuring that families are eligible to participate in HUD rental assistance programs and determining the correct amount of rental assistance a family is eligible for. All PHAs are required to use this system in accordance with HUD regulations at 24 CFR 5.233.

HUD requires PHAs, which administers the above-listed rental housing programs, to report certain information at the conclusion of your participation in a HUD rental assistance program. This notice provides you with information on what information the PHA is required to provide HUD, who will have access to this information, how this information is used and your rights. PHAs are required to provide this notice to all applicants and program participants and you are required to acknowledge receipt of this notice by signing page 2. Each adult household member must sign this form.

What information about you and your tenancy does HUD collect from the PHA?

The following information is collected about each member of your household (family composition): full name, date of birth, and Social Security Number.

The following adverse information is collected once your participation in the housing program has ended, whether you voluntarily or involuntarily move out of an assisted unit:

1. Amount of any balance you owe the PHA or Section 8 landlord (up to $500,000) and explanation for balance owed (i.e. unpaid rent, retroactive rent (due to unreported income and/ or change in family composition) or other charges such as damages, utility charges, etc.); and
2. Whether or not you have entered into a repayment agreement for the amount that you owe the PHA; and
3. Whether or not you have defaulted on a repayment agreement; and
4. Whether or not the PHA has obtained a judgment against you; and
5. Whether or not you have filed for bankruptcy; and
6. The negative reason(s) for your end of participation or any negative status (i.e., abandoned unit, fraud, lease violations, criminal activity, etc.) as of the end of participation date.

Who will have access to the information collected?

This information will be available to HUD employees, PHA employees, and contractors of HUD and PHAs.

How will this information be used?

PHAs will have access to this information during the time of application for rental assistance and reexamination of family income and composition for existing participants. PHAs will be able to access this information to determine a family's suitability for initial or continued rental assistance, and avoid providing limited Federal housing assistance to families who have previously been unable to comply with HUD program requirements. If the reported information is accurate, a PHA may terminate your current rental assistance and deny your future request for HUD rental assistance, subject to PHA policy.

How long is the debt owed and termination information maintained in EIV?

Debt owed and termination information will be maintained in EIV for a period of up to ten (10) years from the end of participation date.

What are my rights?

In accordance with the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 USC 552a) and HUD regulations pertaining to its implementation of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (24 CFR Part 16), you have the following rights:

5. To have your record disclosed to a third party upon receipt of your written and signed request.

What do I do if I dispute the debt or termination information reported about me?

If you disagree with the reported information, you should contact in writing the PHA who has reported this information about you. The PHA's name, address, and telephone numbers are listed on the Debts Owed and Termination Report. You have a right to request and obtain a copy of this report from the PHA. Inform the PHA why you dispute the information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. HUD's record retention policies at 24 CFR Part 908 and 24 CFR Part 982 provide that the PHA may destroy your records three years from the date your participation in the program ends. To ensure the availability of your records, disputes of the original debt or termination information must be made within three years from the end of participation date; otherwise the debt and termination information will be presumed correct. Only the PHA who reported the adverse information about you can delete or correct your record. Your filing of bankruptcy will not result in the removal of debt owed or termination information from HUD's EIV system. However, if you have included this debt in your bankruptcy filing and/or this debt has been discharged by the bankruptcy court, your record will be updated to include the bankruptcy indicator, when you provide the PHA with documentation of your bankruptcy status.

The PHA will notify you in writing of its action regarding your dispute within 30 days of receiving your written dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is correct, the PHA will provide an explanation as to why the information is correct.
