THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Don't risk your chances for Federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application and recertification forms.

Purpose: This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.

PENALTIES FOR COMMITTING FRAUD

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:

- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received;
- Fined up to $10,000;
- Imprisoned for up to 5 years; and/or
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.

Your state and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.

ASKING QUESTIONS

When you sit down with the person who fills out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something – SAY SO!!! That person can answer your questions or find out what the answer is.

SIGNING THE APPLICATION

- Information you give on your application will be verified by your housing agency. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State or a private agency to verify that it is correct.

TO: Purchasers and Tenants of Housing Constructed Before 1978

If this building was constructed before 1978 there is a possibility that it may contain lead-based paint!!!!

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CONCERNING LEAD PAINT POISONING!!!!

The interior of older homes and apartments often have layers of lead-based paint on the walls, ceilings, window sills and door frames. Lead base paint and primers may have also been used on outside porches, railings, garages, fire escapes and lamp posts. When the paint chips, flakes or peels off, there may be a real danger for babies and young children.

Children may eat chips or chew on painted railings, window sills or other items when parents are not around. Children may also ingest lead even they do not specifically eat paint chips. For example, when children play in an area where there are loose paint or dust particles containing lead, they may get these particles on their hands, put them in their mouths, and ingest a dangerous amount of lead.

Has your child been especially cranky or irritable? Is he or she eating normally? does your child have stomach aches and vomiting? Does he or she complain about headaches? Is your child unwilling to play? this may be signs of lead poisoning, although many times there are no symptoms at all. Lead poisoning can eventually cause mental retardation, blindness, and even death.

If you suspect that your child has eaten chips of paint or someone told you this, you should take your child to the doctor or clinic for testing. If the test shows that your child has an elevated blood lead level, treatment is available. Contact your doctor or local health department for help or more information. Lead screening and treatment are available through the Medicaid Program for those who are eligible.

Inform other family members and babysitters of the dangers of lead poisoning. You can safeguard your child from lead poisoning by preventing him or her from eating paint that contains lead.

Look at your walls, ceilings, door frames, windowsills. Are there places where the paint is peeling, flaking, or chipping? If so, there are some things you can do immediately to protect your child:

1. Cover all furniture and appliances.
2. Get a broom or stiff brush and remove all loose pieces of paint from walls, woodwork, and ceilings.
3. Sweep up all pieces of paint and plaster and put them in a paper bag or wrap them in newspapers. Put those packages in the trash can. DO NOT BURN THEM.
4. Do not leave paint chips on the floor. Damp mop the floors in and around the work area to remove all dust and paint particles. Keeping the floor clean of paint chips, dust and dirt is easy and very important.
5. Do not allow loose paint to remain within your children's reach since children may pick loose paint off the lower part of the walls.

AS A RENTER: You should notify the Management office immediately if the unit in which you live has flaking, chipping, or peeling paint, water leaks from faulty plumbing, or defective roofs. You should cooperate with the management Office's efforts to repair any deficiencies and keep your unit in good shape. When lead-based paint is removed by scraping or sanding, a hazardous dust is created which can enter the body either by breathing or swallowing the dust. The use of heat or paint removers could create a vapor or fume which may cause poisoning if inhaled over a long period of time. Whenever possible, the removal of lead-based paint should take place when there are no children or pregnant women on the premise.

Remember that you as a parent play an important role in the prevention of lead poisoning. Your actions and awareness about the lead problem can make a big difference!

I have read and understand the above regarding Lead-Based Paint Poisoning.

Please be advised of the following HUD guideline regarding renting from a relative as stated on the HUD Form 52646 ref Handbook 7420.8

The family (including each family member) must not: Receive housing choice voucher program housing assistance while residing in a unit owned by a parent, child, grandparent, sister or brother of any member of the family, unless the PHA has determined (and has notified the owner and the family of such determination) that approving rental of the unit, notwithstanding such relationship, would provide reasonable accommodation for a family member who is a person with disabilities.

24 CFT 945.105 defines a disabled family as follows:

Disabled family means a family whose head, spouse, or co-head is a person with disabilities. The term “disabled family” may include two or more persons with disabilities living with one or more persons who are determined to be essential to the care or well being of the person or persons with disabilities. A disabled family may include person with disabilities who are elderly.

Non-Elderly disabled family means a person with a disability who is less than 62 years of age. A person with disabilities means a person who:

- Has a disability as defined in Section 223 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 423), or
- Is determined to have a physical, mental, or emotional impairment that:
 - Is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration;
 - Substantially impedes his/her ability to live independently, and
 - Is of such a nature that such ability could be improved by more suitable housing conditions; or
- Has a developmental disability as defined in Section 102 of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act (42 U.S.C. 6001(5)).

The term “persons with disabilities” does not exclude persons who have the disease of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome or any conditions arising from the etiologic agent for acquired immunodeficiency syndrome.

Non-disable Voucher Holders are NOT ELIGIBLE to rent property from a FAMILY MEMBER.

I have read and understand the above statement regarding the Relative Rule.
